2. Candidates who are admitted on the basis of the 1st round of online counselling and wish to change their course and institute against the remaining vacant seats may participate in the 2nd round of online counselling. If a seat is re-allotted to the candidate in the concerned counselling round, it will be mandatory for the candidate to take admission to the newly allotted course and institute, as their earlier admission will automatically stand cancelled. The seat thereby vacated will be allotted to another candidate on the basis of merit-cum-choice by the Board. Admitted candidates who apply for upgradation of course and institute during counselling may also be upgraded to a different category/quota, depending upon the actual vacancy available at the candidate's merit.

3. The candidates having applied for inclusion of their names in State Merit List for the 1st Round of Online Counselling need not fill the online application form for the 2nd round of counselling.

4. If a candidate recommended for a State Quota seat wishes to join an All India Quota (AIQ) allotted seat, the candidate will have to surrender the State Quota seat and submit a resignation to the State Quota admitting institute. The candidate's security money will be forfeited.
